What do these four words have in common?

Wonder... Discover...
Passion... Empower...

Those four words are the keys to our newly written Education Ministry Plan. You'll see more and more of this coming out this year as we seek to place discipleship back where it belongs... in the family.

“Train up a child in the way he should go, even when he is old he will not depart from it.”

Proverbs 22:6

Senior Adult Ministries

- We had a great Senior Adult Rally in January with over 220 attending. Thanks to our Shadowbrook staff, members, and senior adults for helping make this a great success.
- Remember Mid Week Bible Study is each Thursday at 11:00 am in A125.
- Prime Timer's lunch will be Thursday, February 11th at noon in the FLC.

International Missions

BK and Jung Kang will be completing their language school on February 20th. They will also be completing their first year in Indonesia. They will be packing their belongings and moving to the Borneo Islands. Here are their specific prayer requests:

- (1) Excellency in their spiritual and physical condition for the spiritual warfare they will face.
- (2) For local partners that God will provide in their new mission.
- (3) For the networking of intercessory prayer.
- (4) For getting long-term residence visa with work permit through the bridge of Taekwondo teaching in colleges, and finding suitable home in the village of our target peoples, ('M' group).
- (5) For starting CPM, Church Planting Movement, among 'M' through preaching, building and sending them as disciples for
