

RULES

- This challenge is primarily designed for Elementary age kids, however, families with non-readers only are welcome to use this guide for their family devotions. Ideally, each child in the family will go through the challenge on their own.
- There are three readings per week, and then there are some extra options listed below:
  - Memory Challenge (each month we suggest one passage for you to memorize.)
  - Family Reading (each week we suggest a portion of Scripture for families to read and discuss together.)
  - Read Aloud Challenge (a weekly opportunity for you to read a Bible passage to a younger sibling, grandparent, or anyone else who would be willing to listen.)
- The Eat This Book Challenge starts on January 6 and ends on May 26. You can join the challenge any time between January and May.
- Mark your progress after each reading by placing an “x” in the designated space. Each “x” equals 1 point.
- Each Family Reading and Read Aloud Challenge is worth 5 points.
- For some weeks there are extra challenges; each one is worth 15 points.
- Each memorization challenge is worth 50 points.
- Check out the Super Challenges page for the list of extreme assignments with super big rewards.
- Turn in your progress cards to Pastor Jeff on the first Sunday of each month.
- When you’re finished, hand your workbook with totaled points to Pastor Jeff (any Sunday before May 27). You are on your honor!

Parents, please initial each challenge that your child has completed.
